6.6 Publication of Building Permit Information

Upon adoption of the Freedom of Information and Privacy legislation, local government may publish the following:

- name of owner and legal description of property subject to the permit
- site address
- purpose of permit
- value of construction
- permit fees
- any conditions/limitations on the permit.

Local government shall not publish the following:

- personal information including owner's address and telephone number
- owner's name, if agent (contractor) applies for the permit.

This information applies at the application stage as well as the permit issuing stage.
